

ELIZABETH and AKBAR

Early Music Ensemble || Matilda Hofman, conductor
Hindustani Vocal Ensemble || Rita Sahai, director

MARCH 3, 2018 @ 7 PM

RECITAL HALL, ANN E. PITZER CENTER

Music was a force of understanding and co-operation between different faiths and ideologies in the courts of two politically astute sixteenth century rulers—Emperor Akbar 1st of India and Elizabeth 1st of England—rulers both known for their use of tolerance as a force to strengthen and build their respective countries into leading forces on an increasingly connected world stage.

$10 STUDENTS AND CHILDREN / $20 ADULTS TICKETS ARE AVAILABLE THROUGH THE MONDAVI CENTER'S TICKET OFFICE, WWW.MONDAVIARTS.ORG OR VIA (530) 754-2787.

UC DAVIS
DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

MUSIC.UCDAVIS.EDU