ECCE TU PULCHRA ES

ORDER OF SERVICE

Ecce tu pulchra es, amica mea.
Oculi tui columbarum.
Ecce tu pulcher es, dilecte mi, et decorus.
Lectulus noster floridus,
Tecta domorum nostrarum cedrina,
Laquearia nostra cipresina.
Ego flos campi et lilyum convallium.
Sicut lilyum interspinas,
Sic amica mea interfilias.
Introduxit me rex incubiculum suum.
Ordinavit in me caritatem.
Fulcite me floribus, stipate me malis,
Quia amore langueo.

How beautiful you are, my dearest.
Your eyes are like doves.
How beautiful you are, O my love, and how pleasant.
Our couch is shaded with branches,
The beams of our house are of cedar,
Our ceilings are all of fir.
I am a rose in Sharon, a lily growing in the valley.
No, a lily among thorns,
Is my dearest among the daughters.
He took me into the wine-garden,
And gave me loving glances.
He refreshed me with raisins,
He revived me with apricots,
For I was faint with love.
